Tonight's Entertainment

While there will be no shortage of entertainment in tonight's TradingPost.com E.J. Whitten Legends Game, there will be some special events before the game and during the half-time break.

Pre-game, there will be a mascot race, while at half-time there will be three activities including an All Abilities match, the 13CABS sprint and the launch of the next Toyota Legendary Moment.

TOYOTA LEGENDARY MOMENT LAUNCH

The next Toyota Legendary Moment will be launched at half-time tonight and shown on the big screens. Comedians Dave Lawson and Steve Curry will be on hand to talk about a moment that is guaranteed to have fans in stitches. For 13 years, Lawson and Curry have teamed up to re-create the greatest moments in football history with some of the biggest names in the game, including Alex Jesaulenko, Kevin Bartlett and Tony 'Plugger' Lockett.

MASCOT RACE

● All 10 Victorian-based club mascots, plus the Sydney Swans mascot Cyggy, will entertain fans before the big game with a special mascot race. And not to be outdone, the Drainman is also running!

ALL ABILITIES

● AFL Victoria FIDA Football League supports people with an intellectual disability to play our great game.

This match, to be played at half-time of tonight's Legends Game, will provide those with a disability the chance to showcase their skills on a major event stage, highlighting their passion for our great game, and the AFL is leading the way on social inclusion for all people.

13CABS SPRINT

● 13CABS and the AFL have been searching Australia to find the fastest local AFL football player and the fastest 13CABS driver to compete in the 13CABS Grand Final Sprint.

Tonight's participants have won their way through to the finals by competing in state heats held over the past four weeks.

The winner from each race goes on to compete in the 13CABS AFL Grand Final Sprint at the MCG on October 1.
