NIGHTLIFE EXHIBITION AT RIPPONLEA

On a very VERY windy Saturday, 15 of our members & friends journeyed to the magnificent Ripponlea in Elsternwick.

We were all in awe at the beautiful beaded dresses that we saw, most of them made in France in 1925. They were worn in Melbourne by the rich and famous Ladies of those days. Amazing that most of the outfits still looked perfect.

Before we headed in to lunch we headed to the portaloos toilets. The wind was so strong I was scared I would have got blown away. Good for a laugh anyway. Of course a lot of our conversations were about our boys' great win against Sydney the night before.

We were served a lovely lunch, freshly home-made sandwiches and delicious scones just out of the oven with beautiful raspberry jam and cream.

A lovely day enjoyed by us all .Win.

MID-MONTH COFFEE AND CHAT AT FOREST HILL CHASE SHOPPING CENTRE
