

Facebook Guidelines

The Brisbane Lions Facebook Fan Page exists for all of our awesome fans. As a Club, we value your comments, however, it is important to have some guidelines in place to ensure that ALL users of this page to enjoy their experience. Please consider other people's rights and comply with the law when making posts on the Brisbane Lions Fan Page. Those that continually refuse to co-operate are not true fans and will subsequently be removed from this page.

Please understand that comments posted to this Fan Page do not represent the opinions of the Brisbane Lions.

Posts should not be:

1. Abusive, insulting, hateful, humiliating, offensive, defamatory of the reputation of others or bully or harass others;
2. Discriminatory of others on the basis of a person's attributes, including age, disability, impairment, sexual activity/orientation, marital status, physical features, political belief or activity, pregnancy, race, religious belief, and gender;
3. Pornographic, sexually explicit, or comments on the appearance and/or sexuality of others or messages of a sexual nature intended the humiliate others, including sexist jokes;
4. Threatening or incite violence;
5. A violation of any other persons' rights or the law; or
6. Spam.