Corporate Partnership Terms & Conditions

1. Events & Benefits

In consideration of the event fees payable by the Client under clause 2, the Client is entitled to the benefits and to attend the events as set out in Part 3 of Schedule 1.

2. Events Fees & Payment Terms

- 2.1 The Client will pay to EFC the event fees in the amount and in the manner set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1. EFC will send a tax invoice on a timely basis so that the relevant amounts can be paid by the specified dates.
- 2.2 A 3.5% surcharge will be added to an invoice that is paid by an American Express or Diners card.

3. Tickets, Changing Events & Cancellation

- 3.1 The relevant number of tickets for matches will be sent by EFC before the start of the home and away season and, in the case of casual sales, upon full payment for the match. Tickets for other events will be issued within a reasonable time before the event.
- 3.2 The Client may cancel its attendance at an event by giving at least 14 days written notice to EFC. If notice is given, the parties will endeavour to find an alternative EFC event. If that cannot be organised the amount payable for the event will be deducted from the total event fees or refunded if it has already been paid.
- 3.3 If the Client cancels its attendance at an event within 14 days of the event being held, 20% of the amount that would have been charged for the event remains payable.
- 3.4 Any request to change a match or other event listed in the Schedule to another event must be made at least 6 working days prior to it being held. EFC will attempt to accommodate a request, but this is subject to availability. An administration fee of 5% of the amount payable for the event will be charged for each request.
- 3.5 If an event is transferred or cancelled by EFC or an event organiser, EFC will organise for the Client to attend another EFC event after consulting with the Client.
- 3.6 If an event is cancelled (either by the Client or EFC), the Client must immediately return to EFC, or at its request destroy, any advance ticketing held by the Client for the event.
- 3.7 EFC will replace lost or stolen tickets upon being notified by the Client, but reserves the right to pass on any cost that it may incur in re-issuing any tickets.

4. AFL Final Series

- 4.1 The AFL issues tickets for AFL finals matches and EFC cannot guarantee seating location.
- 4.2 Tickets for AFL finals matches will only be distributed by EFC if all of the event fees have been paid in full.
- 4.3 The Client must comply with any obligations imposed under the AFL Grand Final Ticketing legislation.

5. Code of Conduct

- 5.1 The Client must ensure that its employees or invitees:
 - (a) conform to and comply with the rules and requirements of the venue operator or event organiser, including any dress code that may be applicable;
 - (b) at an event, follow any reasonable or lawful directions given by the venue operator, event organiser or EFC staff;
 - (c) consume alcohol in a responsible manner;
 - (d) do not abuse or harass employees of the venue operator or EFC; and
 - (e) do not engage in any disorderly, offensive or improper behaviour at an event or cause any intentional or reckless damage to property.
- 5.2 EFC reserves the right to refuse admission, or remove from an event, any person engaging in the type of behaviour described in clauses 5.1(d) and (e).

6. Indemnity

The Client indemnifies and agrees to keep EFC, its employees and agents indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or liability that they may suffer by reason of any incident at an event caused by the Client or any of its employees or invitees. Without limitation, this indemnity includes any loss or liability suffered by EFC under its arrangements with a venue operator that is caused by the Client or any of its employees or invitees.

7. Privacy

Information contained in this Agreement is necessary for EFC to provide the benefits. The Client consents to EFC collecting, retaining and using the personal information it has provided for the development of the Club, to keep it informed about the Club, its activities and products and for direct marketing purposes.
