BIDDING TO WIN

If you have been outbid GalaBid will let you know the next minimum bid you need to place to be the highest bidder, please be aware that other people may be placing bids at the same time as you. If their bid comes in first or is higher, your bid will not be successful. Once the silent auction has closed you will be notified of the items you have won.

AUCTION RULES

1. Auction Rules are as per "Auction Sales Act 1958" all amendments past and present.
2. Auction goods and services will be displayed (where possible) prior to the commencement of the bidding for viewing by guests. There are several items to be sold by voucher. All goods are as described in the catalogue.
3. Values under items are advised by donors or estimates; they are not guaranteed by the Melbourne Football Club.
4. Opening bid: For all items in the silent auction, opening bids are set at a minimum of a third of the retail value supplied unless otherwise advised in the catalogue.
5. Items and services must be used within the time frame specified in the catalogue or on the voucher. If date not specified, vouchers must be used within one year from August 14, 2013 or by personal arrangement with a donor. (Note: Special conditions apply to certain items as advised in the catalogue)
6. It is the responsibility of the purchaser to redeem their item by the expiration date.
7. All sales are final, and goods/services are sold as found with faults, if any, and there will be no exchange or refunds on goods/services, excepting as implied or expressed by any manufacturer's warranty or services. Any expression by the Auctioneer is an expression of opinion only, and shall have no bearing.
8. Collection of goods can occur in the week following the event, once payment has been received. Collection available from the Melbourne Football Club office at the MCG or items can be delivered at a minimal cost to the bidder within the metropolitan area.
9. During the live auction, the Auctioneer may, without any reason, refuse to accept the bidding of any person or persons, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the Lot in dispute will be put up again and resold.
10. Any items not listed in the Catalogue are sold in accordance with the above conditions.
11. All travel Lots require 30 days' notice to the provider of the item.
12. All bids inclusive of GST.
