

DEMONS IN THE COMMUNITY

Welcome to the first edition of Demons in the Community.

Between the club's engagement with inner Melbourne and its partnerships with the Northern Territory and City of Casey, there are numerous opportunities for our players to participate in a range of community programs. The club prides itself on its commitment to its community pillars. These pillars include women in football, education, multicultural programs, indigenous programs, grassroots football and charities.

Take a look over some snapshots of the work our players do off the football field:

Demons women lead the way

For the second year, the Melbourne women's team competed in an exhibition match against the Western Bulldogs. Once again they emerged triumphant, with Chelsea Randall awarded best on ground.

READ MORE

Grimes lends a hand

When Jack Grimes made a visit to girls' football training at Hallam Senior College, the co-captain arrived with a donation from the club to help out a player with financial difficulties.

READ MORE

Read Like a Demon

Our Read Like a Demon ambassadors have been out and about spreading the importance of reading to groups of primary school students in the Northern Territory and the City of Casey.

READ MORE

Toumpas' multicultural work

Unable to take the field against Port Adelaide due to severe appendicitis, Multicultural Ambassador Jimmy Toumpas was kept busy participating in a range of activities throughout the AFL Multicultural Round.

READ MORE

Dees in the NT

Our partnership with the Northern Territory provided a range of opportunities for players to engage with local indigenous communities.

READ MORE

