JOB OPPORTUNITY

Collingwood Football Club is embarking on a new chapter and is looking for the right professionals to shape the club's next 126 years. Now with seven elite sporting teams under the one roof at the Holden Centre, the club is reimagining its future.

While always committed to challenging and innovating in the pursuit of excellence as a high performance organisation, Collingwood also prides itself on being a leader in the community. This is your opportunity to be part of the changing landscape of Australian sport in the heart of Melbourne's Olympic Park.

AFLW Senior Coach

Collingwood Football Club are seeking to appoint an AFLW Senior Coach to come on board and play an instrumental role in our evolving Women's Football Program. Your role will be to set the overall direction for the AFLW team, establishing and implementing a high performance coaching framework and encouraging and motivating the Women's Football team to perform at their highest level.

The AFLW Senior Coach will be responsible for providing strong guidance, direction and confidence to the playing group by driving high performance standards and behaviour throughout the program as well as across the overall club environment. Another important component of this role will be the mentoring and development of Collingwood's AFLW/VFLW Pathway and Development coaches and staff.

You will be a proven leader with a passion for and strong knowledge of football. You are resilient, creative in your approach and able to hit the ground running. The role will concentrate on the recognition of talent and generating an environment, which fosters and supports the development of the athletes and the team around you. You also understand the importance of supporting equality and opportunity for all.

Specifically you will focus on;

- Developing and evolving standard appropriate strategy and game plan based on elite AFLW game trends
- Provide recommendations on trends and issues in the area of coaching for elite athletes
- Liaising with the physical performance and relevant women's football staff with regard to the player injuries and development
- The planning and preparation program of Women's Football athletes in conjunction with the physical performance staff
- Support the Senior VFLW Coach, whilst also concentrating on the development of the VFLW, Pathway & Development Coaches
- Represent the club in media and sponsor commitments as required

We are looking for someone who is proactive and passionate about maintaining a climate where potential is realised and action is inspired in others.

In return, we offer a highly competitive remuneration package and benefits, state of the art facilities at the Holden Centre and a strong and vibrant work culture.

If this sounds like you and you are ready to take your next step in your coaching career within the high performance industry then please send through a detailed CV and covering letter to careers@collingwoodfc.com.au. Applications close Monday 29 April 2019.
