

- COLLINGWOOD FOOTBALL CLUB -

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Collingwood Football Club is embarking on a new chapter and is looking for the right professionals to shape the club's next 126 years. Now with seven elite sporting teams under the one roof at the Holden Centre, the club is reimagining its future.

While always committed to challenging and innovating in the pursuit of excellence as a high performance organisation, Collingwood also prides itself on being a leader in the community. This is your opportunity to be part of the changing landscape of Australian sport in the heart of Melbourne's Olympic Park.

DIGITAL MEDIA PRODUCER - VIDEO

Collingwood Football Club is looking for a dedicated, creative minded film maker with strong skills in video editing, filming and content production, to join our dynamic team. Based at the Holden Centre, this role is ideal for a freethinking, self-motivated professional who is looking to advance their career in sports media and is able to continue our delivery of top quality content for 2019 and beyond.

You will be responsible for producing video content on the day-to-day happenings at the Holden Centre, to be consumed by Collingwood members and fans, through our various media platforms. The perfect candidate will have knowledge and demonstrated skills in shooting, editing and directing talent as well as the ability to collaborate and develop creative content ideas for internal and external clients.

Other essential experience includes:

- Extensive knowledge of cinema, broadcast and DSLR cameras
- Shooting experience in both content capture (run and gun) and a controlled studio environment
- Proven editing experience, preferably using Final Cut X and Premiere Pro
- Knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite programs, including After Effects and Photoshop

You will have strong problem solving skills and the ability to make critical decisions, often under pressure. With seven elite sporting teams, and numerous fan focused community programs and events to cover, this role requires an availability to travel and work over seven days, often outside normal working hours.

Along with having the right skills - more than anything, we're looking for the right person to join our team. A positive, enthusiastic attitude is key to us; your ability to contribute and work well in a passionate team environment is paramount.

Should you feel you have what it takes, send through your cover letter and resume, including your salary expectations and links to online videos or websites that you have created, to careers@collingwoodfc.com.au.

Applications are also to include a link to a short show reel (1min approx.) demonstrating your quality editing and film making skills (please note, links must be hosted online – please do not send video files).

Applications close Monday 5 August 2019.
